MONTHLY REPORT OF THE CANDLER PARK NEIGHBORHOOD ORGANIZATION

Volume 8 Issue 2

Feb. 1996

From The President...

He doesn't have a sofa on his front porch. He doesn't park broken-down cars in front of my yard. His dog doesn't poop in my yard, and his cat doesn't tear up my plants. And, best of all, he doesn't throw loud and wild parties without inviting me. Who is he? He's my next door neighbor, Bobby Milstein, and he's one of the reasons Candler Park is a great place to live.

So, are you doing all you can to be a great neighbor and an asset to the community? The following is a list of ways you can make a difference in Candler Park:

- SLOWDOWN. Speeding detracts from the neighborhood and is a danger to us all.
- DON'T PARK ILLEGALLY. What may be convenient for you, may cause someone else an accident.
- PAINT AND POWER WASH. Peeling paint is unsightly, hastens deterioration of your home, and lowers the property values of your home and your neighbors.
- KEEP UP YOUR YARD. Okay, admittedly Bobby falls a little short on this one. However, he does like to mow so we worked out a deal - he does my mowing and I do his edging, pruning and mulching. Work out similar bartering arrangements with your neighbors and friends.
- GO FOR A WALK. The best way to get to know Candler Park's ambiance and your neighbors is to get out and walk around. And, while you're walking...
- PICK UP TRASH. It tides up the place and firms the tush!
- SUPPORT LOCAL BUSINESSES. They are a tremendous asset to our community and deserve our patronage.
- SWEEP YOUR SIDEWALK ALREADY! As you were suppose to, most of you did this in the fall. If you didn't - Get on the stick (or rake, as it may be)
- DON'T POST SIGNS ON TELEPHONE POLES. Firstly, its illegal. Secondly, it causes visual pollution. But, you lost your cat you say... which brings me to...

- KEEP TABS ON YOUR PETS. Nobody appreciates their yard or porch being used as a litter box. Nor do they appreciate their plants being dug up, pets being attacked or all those illegal signs, announcing you've lost your pets, cluttering the sidewalks.

- VOLUNTEER. It's as good for your soul as it is for those you help.

- ATTEND A CPNO MEETING. It's a great way to meet your neighbors and get involved.

Review of Rules for Meeting Discussions

As there are always new people in the neighborhood, the CPNO executive board thought it would be helpful to publish the rules by which CPNO meetings are governed. They are primarily derived from 'Robert's Rules of Order' (basic parliamentary procedures), and govern all discussions of matters which require a vote at CPNO meetings:

1. Any presenter will be limited to 10 minutes, not including questions and answers from the assembly. If someone has notified the chair in advance of the meeting that he or she wishes to present formal opposition, this speaker will also be allowed 10 minutes. The question and answer session will begin after both presentations. This session will cease when a motion is tendered. A seconding of the motion is required.
2. When a seconded motion is on the floor, discussion of the motion as stated may begin and amendments to the motion may be made. When it appears to the chair that discussion has wound down, the chair will ask 'would you like to call to question?'. A two-thirds (2/3) vote of the assembly is required to end the discussion. The chair will, after discussion is complete, restate the motion with any amendments and a vote will be taken.
3. Before any person may speak, he or she must be recognized by the chair and the chair must yield the floor. Any person speaking out of turn will be issued a warning. Upon receiving a third warning, the unruly member will be asked to leave.
4. The stating of questions, comments, or opinions from members of the assembly will be limited to two minutes. Each person will be given one chance to ask a question until all members of the assembly have had their chance.
5. The chair can appoint a sergeant-at-arms, and/or parliamentarian as needed.

If you have any questions about these rules, please call myself or one of the board members for clarification.

An Opinion

Last month's meeting made it evident that perceptions of the purpose and function of the CPNO are not clear. The Candler Park Neighborhood Organization is an organization allowing a collective voice for the neighborhood's concerns. It is democratic body and any resident of Candler Park is a member. These neighborhood concerns usually involve things such as zoning, traffic, crime and general up-keep of the neighborhoods public spaces. Other concerns are often brought up and some action is taken based on popular opinion. Facilitating these tasks requires a great deal of volunteer effort. In the past, this volunteerism has led to a strong feeling of community and this is one of the aspects that attracts people to Candler Park. At last month's meeting there was no such sense of community. There were rude and antagonistic interruptions to what has in the past been an efficient and productive meeting.

Several complaints were made that the disorganization of the meeting makes it unattractive to participants. I agree. Why would a person want to become involved or voice their opinion if they are going to be rudely attacked and any effort towards discussion is to be dismissed? The person that would ask this question should realize that the disruptive voices at the last meeting were an exception. They do not reflect the congenial attitudes of the many that are currently involved in improving our neighborhood or those that have been involved in the past. Through the collective efforts of CPNO members, our parks have been improved and landscaped, the golf course has been saved from becoming a parking lot or worse, money has been raised for neighbors in need and children have been sponsored and sent to summer camp. All this has helped the neighborhood as a whole.

The spirit of community is evident every day in Candler Park. The streets are made more pleasant to walk down because of the opportunity to see and greet a neighbor. The neighborhood is safer because of the 'get involved' attitude of residents makes criminals wary. This spirit is what makes Candler Park great and is only possible through the participation of everyone in the neighborhood. The CPNO, as a working body, depends on your participation also. Be involved, be informed, contribute to your neighborhood.

Festival Sponsorships Available

Plans are under way for a rollicking good time on June 8th at the Second Annual Candler Park/ Lake Claire Art and Music Shindig. In the plans are a 5K run, Golf Tournament, Artists' booths, live bands and the irresistible silliness of an Edible Art Contest!

For those of you who own businesses, the call for sponsors is sounding. If you're looking for an inexpensive way to reach the in-town market, or if you'd simply like to raise awareness of your existence, becoming a sponsor is a great way to start. To receive a sponsorship packet, call Beth at Donna Van Gogh's (370-1003).
